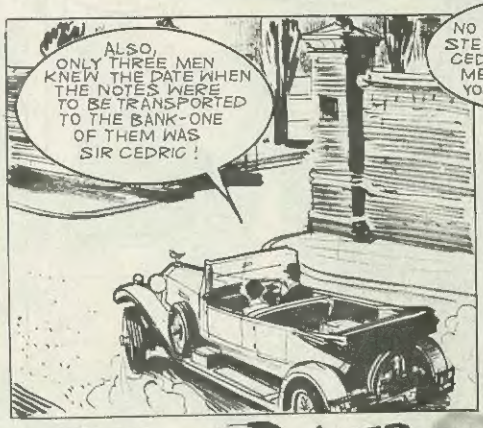
THE AVENGERS

JOHN STEED and Tara King have discovered that forged banknotes have been substituted for brand new notes delivered to the Bank of England. Their investigations take them to Kent where Steed's suspicions centre on an old manor house known as Carver Hall.

WHY ARE WE GOING TO CARVER HALL, STEED?
BECAUSE IT IS OWNED BY SIR CEDRIC CRAMP, WHO IS A DIRECTOR OF THE WALPOLE PRINTING COMPANY!
1065

BUT THAT'S THE COMPANY THAT PRINTED THE BANK-NOTES!
YES, THE FIRST TIME THE COMPANY HAD EVER PRINTED BANK-NOTES! BANK OFFICIALS INSPECTED THE NOTES AT THE COMPANY'S FACTORY...



THEN YOU'VE NO REAL EVIDENCE, STEED- AND AS SIR CEDRIC IS A V.I.P. IT'LL MEAN TROUBLE IF YOU'RE WRONG!
I'M NOT GOING TO BARGE IN AND ACCUSE HIM, TARA!

I HAVE LEFT THE FRONT DOOR SLIGHTLY OPEN, AS YOU ORDERED, SIR!
GOOD- IF WE JUST WATCH QUIETLY, WE MAY SEE WHAT OUR VISITORS HAVE REALLY COME FOR, EH?

READER'S PAGE

Send your letters to : The Editor, Reader's Page, Polly Perkins House, Paddington Green, 382-386 Edgware Road, London, W2 1EP. We will pay £1 for any item published.

HERE is a photograph of Marion Langley, who comes from Folkestone in Kent. She goes to the Mundella C.P. School where she has many friends, one of whom, Virginia Dixon, is also a TV Comic reader.

☆☆☆☆☆☆☆

I WOULD like to tell you about my Mom. One day there was a burglary in the next-door house to us, so a policeman came and asked my Mom if she knew anything about it. "No!" she shouted, and the policeman said "Why are you shouting?" My Mom said "Well you are deaf, aren't you?" "No," he said. "It is my walky-talky radio earphone plug!"

Jonquil Clarke, Staffs.

Your Mum and the policeman were not on the same wavelength, Jonquil.

Family funnies

LAST year, my mother, father, young brother and I went on a camping holiday. We camped on top of a long mountain slope. Me and David, my young brother, looked over the slope and saw two reservoirs. My brother said "Look, two lakes." I said they were reservoirs, and I told him that's where we got our water from. His reply was "Which one is the hot one?" We all had a good laugh.

Stephen Redwood, Glamorgan, South Wales.

☆☆☆☆☆☆☆

LAST year when I was on holiday at Woolacombe, in Devon, the tides were high and came in rather fast. Some people were stranded on some rock and we saw the launch go out to rescue them, but it could not get near enough because of the rocks, so a rescue helicopter had to come and pick them up. It was very exciting.

Alison Ford, Worcester.

Now that the holidays are here again many of you will be going to the seaside, so remember to be careful. It is easy on rocky shores to become cut off by the tide and although rescues may be exciting to watch they are not so much fun to take part in.

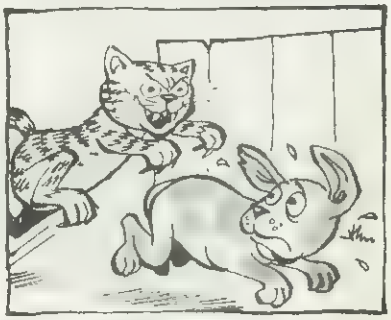
THIRTEEN - YEAR - OLD Emma Campbell, from Reading in Berkshire, sent us this photograph of her pet spaniel, Sheba. Emma says that Sheba is very affectionate and makes a great fuss of her when she comes home. Sheba has a companion called Blatta, who is a dalmatian.

THE TV Comic reader in this picture is Crispin Rodwell from Belfast, Northern Ireland. He has been a reader for a long time and has quite a collection of comics now.

☆☆☆☆☆☆☆

I HAVE a very unusual cat I would like to tell you about. He chases all the dogs he sees and sometimes tries to get them in a corner, then my dad has to come and rescue them.

Lynette Anne Goddard, Bassaleg.



Are you sure your cat hasn't got a striped coat and answers to the name of Tiger, Lynette?

☆☆☆☆☆☆☆

DURING the power cuts, my brother and I played cards with our Mummy. My brother, who always gets things wrong, told me that Mummy had promised to teach him how to play nurse. As none of us had heard of this game, we didn't know what he meant until I realised he meant patience. He knew it was something to do with hospitals.

Julie Cappleman, London.

It sounds as though you need plenty of patience with your brother, Julie.
